

Last Name:

First Name:

WLU ID:

BALSILLIE FELLOWSHIPS

complete all relevant sections

Jim Balsillie, Co-CEO of Research in Motion, has donated funds through The Centre for International Governance Innovation (CIGI) to create the Balsillie Fellowships. Balsillie Fellowships, valued at $15,000 annually, will be awarded to graduate students in the master's program in international public policy (MIPP) and the doctoral program in global governance who satisfy the eligibility requirements for the Wilfrid Laurier University graduate scholarship. The recipients will fulfill intern responsibilities from September to August at CIGI. Selection will be made by the appropriate program directors in consultation with CIGI representatives and the Faculty of Graduate Studies.

If you wish to be considered for a Balsillie Fellowship, you must complete the following information:

Enter a complete list of the awards, fellowships and scholarships you currently hold (or expect to hold):

Name of award/fellowship/scholarship	Year(s) to be held	Total Value
--------------------------------------	--------------------	-------------

Student Acknowledgment:

I understand that this application and my typewritten statement accompanying my Supplementary Information Form will be shared with representatives of CIGI to determine suitability for a Balsillie Fellowship. I understand that, if selected for a Balsillie Fellowship, I must adhere to the following conditions:

1. The award holder could be supervised by a CIGI fellow who may or may not be their current supervisor.
2. The award holder is expected to spend 20% of their research time (55 days per year) at CIGI.

Signature of Applicant

Date

Notice of Collection: Wilfrid Laurier University collects personal information under the authority of the Wilfrid Laurier University Act in order to execute the various functions of the University and to administer the various relations between the University and its students or others. Information collected in this application may be transferred to external bodies including CIGI during the selection process. The names of successful applicants may be made public. Please visit the web site of our Privacy Office for other examples of use. If you have questions about these uses, please contact the director of Laurier's University Information and Privacy Office.