

21st Military History Colloquium

Wilfrid Laurier University, Waterloo, Ontario, Canada

29 April to 1 May 2010

Hosted by:

The Laurier Centre for Military Strategic and Disarmament Studies, Wilfrid Laurier University

Thursday night public lecture

Marc Milner, University of New Brunswick
“To The Far Side of the World: The Canadian Navy’s pursuit of Terrorists, Pirates, and Fleet capability in the post-Cold War World, 1990-2010”

Friday night keynote address

Stephen Bourque, School of Advanced Military Studies
“What we didn’t know: The effect of the Normandy air campaign on French civilians”

Friday and Saturday will feature approximately 50 presentations by graduate students and historians on a wide range of topics including the War of 1812, The First and Second World Wars and more current operations.

Full conference fee:

$95 / $55 for Students ($125 / $75 for Students after 16 April 2010)

(includes registration fee, two lunches, coffee breaks and a banquet dinner.)

$45 Banquet only

For further information contact:

Mike Bechthold, Tel: (519) 884-0710 ext. 4594; Fax: (519) 886-5057;
Email: mbechthold@wlu.ca

Visit

www.canadianmilitaryhistory.com

for full details including an online registration form and the complete program.