

In partnership with the Laurier Centre for Military Strategic and Disarmament Studies

Guelph Civic Museum Lecture Series

Thursday, October 15, 2009

7:30pm

Spies Like Us: Canadians in Nazi-Occupied France

Jonathan Vance, University of Western Ontario

Thursday, November 19, 2009

7:30pm

'The war of the poor relations': The Canadians at the Lamone, December 1944

Eric McGeer, St. Clement's School

Thursday, January 21, 2010

7:30pm

U-boats in the St. Lawrence, 1942-1944: A Most Uniquely Canadian Battle

Roger Sarty, Wilfrid Laurier University

Thursday, February 18, 2010

7:30pm

The Search for a Hero: Talbot Mercer Papineau and the Great War

Geoff Keelan, Laurier Centre for Military, Strategic and Disarmament Studies

Thursday, March 25, 2010

7:30pm

'A brilliant success': The Canadian Capture of Fresnoy, 3 May 1917

Mike Bechthold, Laurier Centre for Military, Strategic and Disarmament Studies

Guelph Civic Museum - 6 Dublin Street S.
(519) 836-1221

guelph.ca/museum museum@guelph.ca

Canadian Soldiers 19694836