

4th Windsor Military Studies Conference

Major F.A. Tilston VC Armoury, 4007 Sandwich Street, Windsor, ON

Friday, February 6, 2009

6:45-7:30 pm
7:30-9:00 pm

Registration

Keynote Address – Professor Terry Copp

Professor Emeritus, Wilfrid Laurier University and Director, Laurier Centre for Military Strategic and Disarmament Studies

“D-Day and the Normandy Campaign – 65 Years On”

Saturday, February 7, 2009

8:30-9:00 am
9:00-9:15 am

Registration

Opening remarks

9:15-10:00 am

Dr. Lee Windsor, University of New Brunswick

“The Italian Campaign: Normandy’s Long Right Flank”

10:00-10:45 am

Professor Mike Bechthold, Wilfrid Laurier University

“Air Power Clears the Way: Normandy 1944”

10:45-11:15 am

Coffee

11:15 -12:15 pm

Dr. Marc Milner, University of New Brunswick

“The Royal Canadian Navy and D-Day”

12:15-1:15 pm

Lunch (featuring performances by Windsor Regiment Band and the Essex & Kent Scottish Regiment Pipes and Drums)

1:15-3:15 pm

Captain (N) Hans Jung, OMM, CD, MD, MA, Deputy Surgeon-General

“Military Medical Services and Combat Stress in Current Operations”

Capt (N) Jung’s paper will be followed by a panel discussion on post-traumatic stress disorder chaired by Lieutenant-Colonel Morris Brause and Lieutenant-Colonel Paul Bradford, MD.

3:15 pm

Closing Remarks by the conference organizers

The conference will also feature various book vendors and displays of military artifacts.

Conference Cost: $20 (including lunch), $10 for students with id
Please pre-register to facilitate food planning – hrgmail@uwindsor.ca, or (519) 253-3000 ext.3506.

Registration at the door is also possible.

For an up-to-date program, see our website at www.uwindsor.ca/hrg

The 4th Windsor Military Studies Conference is sponsored by:

University of Windsor

Humanities
Research
Group

Laurier Centre for Military
Strategic and Disarmament
Studies