21st Military History Colloquium

Wilfrid Laurier University, Waterloo, Ontario, Canada

Hosted by:

The Laurier Centre for Military Strategic
and Disarmament Studies,
Wilfrid Laurier University

29 April to 1 May 2010

The Laurier Centre for Military Strategic and Disarmament Studies, Wilfrid Laurier University, invites proposals for papers to be presented at the 21th Military History Colloquium, to be held at the Wilfrid Laurier University, Waterloo, Ontario on 29 April to 1 May 2009.

The primary focus will be on all periods of Canadian military history - pre-1914, First and Second World Wars, the Korean War and post-1945 developments including peacekeeping. Proposals for papers advancing new and innovative perspectives will receive first consideration. Papers addressing all facets of military history, including tactics and operations, social and cultural issues, economic impacts, and the home front, from the colonial era to the present day will be considered. Proposals are welcome from all scholars, but graduate students and recent Ph.Ds are especially encouraged to submit.

Topics of special interest for 2010:

100th Anniversary of the Canadian Navy

95th Anniversary of 1915

65th Anniversary of the end of the Second World War
